

The North Brunswick Police Department is on the scene of a water main break at the intersection of Route One south and Adams Lane. At this time, one lane is closed due to an opening in the roadway. Construction crews are en route to begin repairs, but we expect this to take us past the afternoon rush. Please plan accordingly, and be alert for road crews working at that location. There may be additional delays and closures needed for repairs.