

APPLICATION FOR A CERTIFICATE OF CONTINUED OCCUPANCY (CCO)

The CCO is designed to accomplish and affirm three (3) things:

1. There are no outstanding permits or inspections associated with the property.
2. No work has been done that required a Construction Permit.
3. Permits are filed and inspections are conducted for any work that requires a permit.

Should you/we identify any one of these items, you will be required to secure and satisfy the necessary permits and inspections before a CCO will be issued.

It is possible that you purchased your house with some of the features above and that the work was done without permits. You will nonetheless be required to secure and satisfy the necessary permits before the CCO will be issued. This assures that past mistakes are not repeated, and that your home is sold completely permitted and inspected as required.

Please be aware that any permits that are required and Certificates of Approval that are issued as a condition of a CCO are provided to the Tax Assessor. Such permits may result in an added assessment for any improvements that were not previously included in the property evaluation and will impact the buyer accordingly.
