

Volunteers Needed!

The North Brunswick Domestic Violence Response Team is looking for new volunteer victim advocates, with preference for team members who are bilingual English/Spanish. The team runs a 24/7/365 on call schedule, responding to North Brunswick and Milltown Police. The on-call times are from 4pm-8am on weekdays, all day on weekends and holidays when family court is closed. Members will need to be able to respond in the night time hours.

This is a volunteer organization and not a paid position.

In order to join:

- Completion of application and background check
- Successful completion of an interview with current team members
- Successful completion of a 40-hour training program (next class beginning 09.18.23)

New team members will:

- Complete minimum 10 supervised hours with experienced DVRT member
- Be on call (within 20-minute response time to North Brunswick and Milltown Police Departments) on scheduled days of the month
- Attend monthly meetings, usually held the first Tuesday of every month
- Attend coalition meetings and continuing education as scheduled

For more information or to apply, please email mpacci@northbrunswicknj.gov by 9/8/23.