WHEREAS, the Department of Parks, Recreation and Community Services and the North Brunswick Recreation Advisory Committee present a Young Adult Peer Advocate Award in recognition of distinguished examples of strong character, leadership abilities and is a positive role model to their peers in their community; and

WHEREAS, Chinmayi Chittamuri is a Senior at Central Jersey College Prep Charter School with a 4.66 GPA; and

WHEREAS, Chinmayi is an exceptional student, who founded the DECA (business) Club and serves as the Editor- in – Chief for her school magazine. Outside of school Chinmayi has been part of multiple business – related activities, such as C00 and President of the Youth Economics Initiative (YEI) and doing an internship with the National STEM Honor Society. She has had a big impact through her environmental advocacy work – gaining a place through her plogging video ( picking up litter and jogging) on the North Brunswick Township website. Chinmayi is a strong student leader and her continual commitment to her community, peers and the environment has been clear since she first started volunteering at the Watershed; and

WHEREAS, Chinmayi has been an advocate for the environmental awareness for the youth of North Brunswick Township for at least the last four years. She is a certified advocate with the Watershed Institute and has been volunteering throughout high school; and

WHEREAS, Chinmayi recognizing a lack of environmental advocacy in North Brunswick Township, published a video on water quality on the Watershed Institute’s YouTube channel about environmental cleanup through plogging. This video has been specially recognized by the Jersey Water Works. Chinmayi also recorded a video of herself plogging near the North Brunswick Township Middle School so as to empower younger students in North Brunswick to also plog to keep the community clean and encourage everyone to do their part in making sure the community is healthy and clean. The video had a big impact and was officially published on the North Brunswick Township Environmental Commission website, where the material serves as an inspiration and a call to promote environmental advocacy in the Township; and

WHEREAS, Chinmayi has been a dedicated advocate who serves as a strong youth leader at the Watershed Institute participating in various activities, such as water quality testing to ensure the health of marine species, as well as talking about North Brunswick’s environmental issues as part of the Watershed Institute’s Advocacy Program. Chinmayi hopes to set up more community activities where the youth of North Brunswick Township will come together to learn more about the importance of environmental awareness and do plogging together.

WHEREAS, Chinmayi is an outstanding role model to her peers demonstrating strong leadership and volunteer efforts to her community.

NOW, THEREFORE, WE, the Mayor and Council of the Township of North Brunswick, along with the Parks and Recreation Advisory Committee, DO HEREBY PROCLAIM, the respect and admiration of the community of North Brunswick to CHINMAYI CHITTAMURI, and name her a Young Adult Peer Advocate Award recipient for 2023, and wish her continued success in the future.

PROCLAMATION

By Mayor and Council – Township of North Brunswick

WHEREAS, SewaDiwali is an initiative by the Hindu American Community to serve people in need through food drives and other endeavors; and

WHEREAS, “Sewa” is an act of selfless service embedded in Hindu tradition and culture. Diwali is a Hindu festival of lights that celebrates the victory of light over darkness; and

WHEREAS, this year while celebrating Diwali, the Hindu American community collected and donated 630,000 pounds of food for 200 food pantries, soup kitchens and food banks around 225 townships in 32 states in the country; and

WHEREAS, over 2500 volunteers, ranging from age 7 to 70, representing approximately 250+ Hindu, Jain and Sikh temples and organizations, participated in SewaDiwali, bringing light and joy to those in need; and

WHEREAS, the volunteers included hundreds of elementary, middle, and high school students participating in this unique initiative which provided them an opportunity to give back to the less fortunate as they look forward to continuing to engage with their communities; and

WHEREAS, SewaDiwali which initiated in 2018, the Hindu American community intends to continue the important tradition of food drives and has given over 1.6 million pounds of food to over 350 food pantries, soup kitchens and food banks and will continue to collect nonperishable foods to meet the rising need for food across several states; and

WHEREAS, due to the success of this initiative in New Jersey and 32 other states, the Hindu American community plans to expand this hunger-fighting program across many other states in America.

NOW THEREFORE, WE the Mayor and Council of the Township of North Brunswick, Do Hereby Proclaim and express our sincere thanks and congratulations to the Hindu American volunteers and encourage all of our residents to support the initiative of Hindu American community efforts to fight hunger and value human lives.
