EXHIBIT A

Report to Determine the Township of North Brunswick Fourth Round Prospective Need for Affordable Housing 2025-2035

This report is being prepared in accordance with N.J.S.A. 52:27D-301, et seq., which allows for a municipality to establish its own Prospective Need utilizing more precise locally generated data than proffered by the Department of Community Affairs (DCA).

As a regional leader in the provision of affordable housing, the Township of North Brunswick has taken many steps and utilized several resources to facilitate affordable housing. Our efforts include establishing inclusionary zoning, mitigating the cost of site acquisition, leasing land to a developer, formulating a non-profit corporation to construct housing utilizing HMFA funding, guaranteeing the mortgage resulting from a bond issue, subsidizing the rents of the lowest income residents in a 100% affordable building, and extensive housing rehabilitation efforts.

The township has performed a detailed analysis of DCA's calculations in order to determine if the local allocation of 239 Prospective Need units is reasonable, and to otherwise determine what the Prospective Need obligation should be.

Following site visits, examining municipal tax records, consulting with the Tax Assessor, and performing a detailed review of aerial photography and wetlands delineations, the township has determined that the DCA data with respect to vacant land should be adjusted to exclude:

1. Sites that have received Planning Board or Board of Adjustment approval for residential or nonresidential development;
2. Sites which are part of the Middlesex County Correctional Facility;
3. Sites which are wooded rear yards of existing single-family homes;
4. Sites comprised of undersized lots that are adjacent to developed lots and under common ownership merge by law and should be removed;
5. Sites which are owned by the township and planned for recreational use;

6. Sites that are small, isolated, and are located within existing industrial developments;
7. Sites that have utility easements or rights-of-way; and
8. Sites that are surrounded by wetlands which make access impossible given current standards and regulations.

Subsequently, the township identified for detailed analysis 27 sites on the map that were designated as vacant and developable properties by DCA. A thorough analysis of these sites was conducted in accordance with the previous site criteria. Based upon this analysis, the township identifies only five (5) of the 27 sites (Sites: 8(B), 15, 17, 26 and 27), containing 13.97 acres, as developable.

Appendix A, included herein, provides detailed support for this determination.

Accordingly, the township of North Brunswick has determined that the DCA calculated Prospective Need of 239 units should be reduced by 27 units to a Prospective Need of 212 units.

METHODOLOGY

The Land Use Factor is only one of three factors used to allocate municipal affordable housing production targets. The other two factors are the Equalized Nonresidential Valuation Factor and the Income Capacity Factor. The township accepts DCA's calculation of both of these factors. The regulations call for the averaging of these three factors to come up with an Average Allocation Factor which establishes the municipality's percentage of the region's Prospective Need.

DCA averaged the Equalized Nonresidential Valuation Factor (3.29%), the Income Capacity Factor (2.07%), and the Land Capacity Factor (0.83%), resulting in an Average Allocation Factor of 2.06%. Applying this percentage to the region's Prospective Need of 11,604 units results in a Prospective Need of 239 units.

Utilizing the township calculation to determine the Land Capacity Factor, this factor is reduced from 0.83% of the region's developable land to .14% of the region's developable land which is calculated by DCA to be 10,324 acres.

Averaging these three factors utilizing the township's Land Capacity Factor results in a revised Average Allocation Factor of 1.83% and a Prospective Need of 212 units.
